

STOCKDOG 101 CLINIC

Stockdog 101 is a two day clinic for those new to herding, as well as those who are more experienced and would like to brush up on the basics. This clinic is designed to build a solid foundation for the handler and their dog.

The clinic will include:

- * In depth lectures covering herding terminology, theory, and training exercises.
- * Demonstrations of exercises that can be done at home to improve your relationship with your dog.
- * Hands-on livestock handling labs to teach you to read and handle livestock without a dog.
- * Several working sessions with your dog throughout the weekend.
- * Informative handouts and notes for at home reference.

Location: Stockdog University / Honey Creek Farms, 9321 S. Honey Creek Rd., Muncie IN

Date and Time: September 25-26, 2010, 8:00 am

Cost: $150/weekend (includes participant and dog) for working spots
$30/day to audit (auditors can observe, but cannot participate in exercises)

Fees include continental breakfast, lunch and drinks.

Clinic size is limited to 10 working spots.

Payment in full will hold your entry. A waiting list is maintained on a first come, first served basis. Last minute handlers and auditors can be accommodated if space permits. Once a working spot is paid for it is yours. If you cannot attend, you may sell your spot to someone on the waiting list.

General Information:

Water and restroom facilities are provided.
Please pick up after your dog.
Dogs should be on lead unless being worked.
Bring a chair and weather appropriate clothing or shade if needed.
